Acute Care Continence Support & Management Product Selection Guide

Review 48/6 Pre-Hospital Screen Tool

Bladder/bowel, functional mobility, cognition & medication

Review Braden Risk Assessment Sensory, moisture & mobility

Maintain patient's continence or support return of continence by assisting with toileting or scheduling/prompting for toileting

If maintenance of continence not successful or not possible due to medical condition

Fecal Incontinence

(not related to constipation) Braden Moisture Sub-Scale Score of 3, 2, or 1

Loose BMs more frequent than 3/24hr

No Yes Assessment indicates need for Mobile internal fecal collection device Yes Yes

External fecal collection device

& mesh pant

Disposable linen protector pad

MRP order for Incontinent pad internal fecal collection device as per HA policy

Able to use device: remove when stool is semi-formed or peri-skin intact or as per HA C.diff protocol

Unable to use device: Disposable linen protector pad

After each incontinence episode (urine, stool or both) cleanse area with no-rinse cleanser apply silicone skin protectant.

If options not working and there is risk for skin breakdown consult NSWOC/NCA.

2025 October British Columbia Provincial Nursing Continence Committee

For additional info, see Continence Care Product Information Sheets All products are available through HA order-entry system.

Urinary Incontinence Braden Moisture Sub-Scale Score of 3, 2, or 1

Female

Mobile/Limited Mobility

Bladder control pad & patient's undergarment

Incontinent pad & mesh pant

Not Mobile

Female Pouch

Female External Catheter

Tabbed or Belted Brief

Disposable Linen Protector Pad

Mobile/Limited Mobility

Male

Male incontinent pad & mesh pant

Pull Up Brief

Condom Catheter

Not Mobile

Male Wrap

Male External Catheter

Tabbed or Belted Brief

Disposable Linen Protector Pad

